

USAID | PHILIPPINES
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

PRESS CLIPPINGS

Office of Program Resources Management

(632) 552-9907

March 8-10, 2008

“USAID/Philippines does not vouch for the accuracy or the opinions of the articles provided in this press clipping service and assumes no responsibility for their content. Please contact USAID/Philippines at infoph@usaid.gov if you have any questions about USAID programs and projects.”

INVESTING IN PEOPLE

(Education)

Saturday, March 8, 2008

BRIDGING DIGITAL DIVIDE. Lisa Chiles, USAID deputy assistant administrator for Asia and the Near East (center), together with Elzadia Washington, USAID deputy mission director (2nd from left) and Undersecretary Virgilio Leyretana, chair of the Mindanao Economic Development Council (far left), present a Computer Literacy and Internet Connection (Clic) program certificate of completion to Prof. Corazon Floresca (2nd from right), president of the Parent Teacher Community

Association of St. Benedict College-High School Department, and school head Dr. Carmelita B. Serrano. St. Benedict College is one of 668 schools in the Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao (ARMM) and other conflict-affected areas in Mindanao which have been assisted by the program, which provides qualified schools with computers, a high-speed internet connection, a local area network, a printer, software, computer reference materials, and training for selected teachers. GEM